From the President

A little over three years ago, as she prepared to assume the role of Temple President, Liz Weingast asked me to serve as an officer of our congregation. I was reticent, having heard just as many people offer her their condolences as had offered their congratulations with respect to her new role. I understood both sentiments.

Since its founding in 1908 Temple Israel had been a center of worship, education, social action, and community. Since the Roosevelt administration (Teddy, not Franklin) we'd served as a warm and welcoming home in times when our members often struggled to find the same reception in our wider society. Along the way, as we fought our own battles, we never shied from supporting other marginalized groups seeking their own place. With a mandate from our members and shepherded by clergy whose names and pictures now adorn the walls of our building, we were moral and religious leaders in the wider community. Liz stepped to the helm of a congregation with a long and proud history. Hence the congratulations.

At the same time, Liz became the President of a Temple whose membership roll reflected the same reality as that of URJ congregations across North America: fewer Reform Jews were joining Temples. As we've become an ever more integral part of the American fabric, some have seen less need for the sense of distinct identity and culture which URJ congregations have historically done so much to foster. Fewer young families choosing to affiliate brings with it the attendant problem, fewer funds with which to carry out our mission. Hence the condolences.

Of course, when Truman said "the buck stops here" he wasn't referring to those standing behind him. It would be Liz stepping into the crosshairs, not me. That, plus recognition of all Temple Israel had done for my family since rejoining as an adult, made my decision to say "yes" to Liz an easy one.

Three years later, at the end of Liz's tenure, the landscape I face assuming the presidency couldn't be more different.

- We've transitioned to voluntary dues allowing all to choose the level of financial support appropriate to them.
- We've seen our membership numbers turn around, experiencing year over year increases since our dues shift.
- We've planned, built, and opened Camp Pinebrook, creating yet another touch point in the lives of our community's children. Having just opened for our second summer we've seen camper numbers more than double since Year 1.
- We've welcomed Cantor Randall Schloss, rounding out a brilliant clergy team recognized for their talent, vision, and compassion.
- Our social action and outreach have reached new highs, culminating this past year with the recognition of our social action chairwomen as they were presented Temple Israel's President's Award. Our values stand front and center.

I get to assume the presidency of a happier, larger, more stable, and more socially active congregation. At the same time, events outside our walls have made Temple Israel more relevant than at any time in recent history. We've watched as anti-Semitism has become ever more virulent and prevalent on both the right and the left. Our children face challenges on college campuses we thought were long behind us. Locally we're called upon to play an ever more important, and necessary, role in maintaining the social fabric of our community.

Thirty-one years ago George Bush borrowed from C. S. Lewis when he referred to "a thousand points of light." He spoke of the need for local communities and organizations to step in and fill the role that government couldn't [or wouldn't] play. Temple Israel is one of those points of light. The need for what we are, and what we represent, has become ever more pressing.

I'm excited to start my new role with a congregation renewed of spirit, at the head of a Temple renewed of purpose. And I'm so grateful for the path Liz has cleared. Perhaps nothing speaks more clearly to that legacy than the only reaction I've received from all of you in response to my new role: "congratulations!"

Board of Trustees Minutes

Board of Trustees Meeting Wednesday, June 19, 2019

Rabbi Nichols provided a word of Torah, reminding the BOT of messages from the Book of Numbers and the many roles of the community and how each person is counted; each person matters. She asked the BOT to consider the roles they can play and the gifts they have to bring.

Rabbi Weiner reflected on the outstanding Shavuot and Confirmation service.

Rabbi Beth Nichols, Director of Congregational Learning, reported on Kehillah's Seeyoom (Graduation) which had 27 children graduating. She also described the focus of the summer work that she and Rebecca Elkus-Ferst engage in including registration, outreach and retention, curricular modifications, new initiatives with the Teen Program, and hiring.

Adam Egelberg presented the financial report. The September meeting will include a review of the budget that closes at the end of this month. Along with Anita Aronoff, Adam is reviewing the way in which financials are reviewed with the BOT.

Rich Alter expressed gratitude for the generous contributions the BOT made to help close the budget deficit for the 2018/2019 year.

Executive Director, Anita Aronoff, presented the membership report which included two new members.

Rabbi's Note

Dear chevrei (friends),

When Temple Topics reaches your mailboxes, summer will officially be in full swing. Some of us will be waiting to receive the first letters from sleep-away camp, some will be filling backpacks with water bottles and sunscreen for day camp, some will be on beach vacations... And then there are some of us who will not even have noticed a change in season and are busy in their daily work routines.

This column is a reminder that summer is not just for kids, parents who need to entertain their kids and people whose jobs are on a school calendar. Summer is for everyone. Think of it this way: If Shabbat is the day of rest and renewal, then summer is the season of rest and renewal. We all need time to lift up our heads from our work, time to take a breath and time to let our minds wander. We need time to connect with people, time to explore new things and time to be inspired.

A fabulous exotic trip might allow us to fulfill all of these goals, but it is not necessary. Experiencing rest and renewal is more about consciously setting aside time for ourselves than it is about location. And thankfully, Judaism has that time built in through Shabbat. If Shabbat is not a regular part of your life, summer might just be the perfect time to try it out. Claim your day of rest in this season of rest.

Of course, you can experience Shabbat here at Temple Israel. As we often remind people, school may be out in the summer, but Shabbat keeps coming every seven days. During the summer our services are designed to take maximum advantage of the season: most Friday night services are outside in our beautiful courtyard (barring rain or unbearable humidity); two Friday nights are at the beach (see p. 11 for details); and our onegs feature sherbet punch (a personal favorite).

But we do not just tout Shabbat as a good idea in order to drum up attendance. After all, Shabbat is not just about prayer services. There is a myriad of ways to make Shabbat a day of rest and renewal: an uninterrupted conversation with a loved one, a long walk in nature, a chapter of a best-seller, a break from screens, time spent on a hobby...

Do not judge your summer by the number of beautiful pictures you can post on social media. Instead, plan your summer around experiences that bring you closer to people you love, activities that bring a smile to your face and moments that lift you up rather than weigh you down. May we all have a summer of shalom, a summer that is peaceful and helps us feel whole.

Rabbi Beth Nichols

President Liz Weingast acknowledged that this is her last meeting and she reflected on the accomplishments of the BOT over these past 3 years.

The BOT had a second vote to release $25K from the Hirshenhorn Fund. The vote passed unanimously.

The President and Officer's Slate was presented:

- President: Rich Alter
- Vice President: Mitch Benson
- Vice President: Todd Brecher
- Vice President: Jamie Deutsch
- Vice President: Sally Meisner
- Vice President: Dan Pomerantz
- Treasurer: Adam Egelberg
- Secretary: Jen Goldman

The BOT voted unanimously to accept the new slate of officers.

On behalf of the Israel Action Committee, Mitch Benson reminded the BOT of the upcoming evening with Jafar Farah, Founder and Director of the Mossawa, an organization that gives voice to Arab Israelis and their concerns.

Jen Goldman, co-head of the Chavaya Committee, reported that the Fall Kindergarten has 12 children registered already. Jen also thanked Cantor Schloss for hosting a potluck dinner in his home for the families of Kol Simcha members.

David Itzkowitz updated the BOT on the HVAC and Roof, proposals, and plans.

Deborah Blatt on behalf of the Social Action Committee requested donations of new backpacks and school supplies for students in need in Westchester County. Donations can be dropped off at the Temple.

Cantor Schloss is hoping to have a middle school or teen choir as the abundant number of sixth graders would like to continue next year.

This week we celebrated the children in the Moochaneem and G'Shareem classes. At Kehillah they have grown and developed into kind, respectful and caring young people. Through the years here, they have gained confidence as they played with friends and learned from dedicated teachers. Kehillah has become an extension of their homes. The children have built strong relationships with their peers and teachers. The atmosphere of love and trust has given them the foundation to succeed in any endeavors they choose to venture into.

We have guided them as they learned to crawl, walk and learn to speak.

We have guided them as they learned to eat at the table with friends, serve themselves and set the table.

We have guided them as they learned to play with friends, share and wait their turn.

We have guided them as they learned to write their first letters and count numbers.

In turn, they have given us so much! They have taught us to appreciate the little things in life. They have taught us patience as they have filled us with their love!

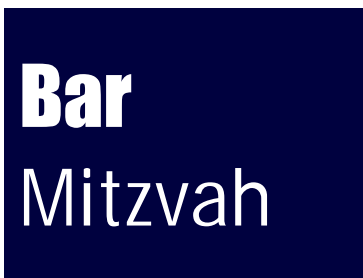

We hope that they will all continue to enjoy school with the same excitement and love of learning.

Everyone at Kehillah sends these children off to kindergarten with love and pride.

My name is Bryan Manheimer and I will celebrate becoming a Bar Mitzvah on Thursday, July 4, 2019 in Israel. I will be chanting the Rosh Chodesh parashat in the book of Numbers. I belong to Temple Israel with my parents, Forrest & Freda. I am in the 7th grade at Scarsdale Middle School. Outside of school, I'm on a competitive swim team, I like to play baseball and I am on a soccer team. For my Mitzvah Project, I worked with a food bank. This project is important to me because food is such a basic need, everybody should have it. Thank you for celebrating with me when I'm called to the Torah.

New for Fall 2019: 8th-12th Grades

This past spring, a new Teen Engagement Committee was formed to think about how Temple Israel can best provide teenagers with opportunities to remain involved with Temple Israel and Jewish life. We are excited to share with you two initiatives that we will pilot this coming year.

1. Tikkun Teens: a community service club with monthly events open to 8th-12th graders.
2. Confirmation Social Justice Track: a community service based alternative to our Tuesday night Confirmation Class that will lead to Confirmation at the end of the year.

In addition to these new programs, we will continue to offer the three programs central to teen involvement at Temple Israel.

1. Tuesday Evening Chavaya: Weekly dinner and classes for 8th-12th graders taught by the clergy and veteran educators; monthly gender-separated groups as part of Moving Traditions; monthly dinners out with the clergy for 11th and 12th graders.
2. Madrachim and Manheegeem: Teen volunteers and paid teen facilitators who work with younger children in the Chavaya program.
3. TIFTY: Teen-led youth group which holds local events and participates in regional and national events through NFTY (North American Federation of Temple Youth).

We never disappoint with the annual Golf Outing on Tuesday, August 6th, which is the biggest fundraiser for Brotherhood! Open to All. Come and spend the day on the links at Hampshire Country Club (1025 Cove Road, Mamaroneck, NY). You'll first enjoy a BBQ from 11:30 am - 12:30 pm followed by the 1 pm Shotgun tee off. Dinner follows at the Temple at 7 pm. It's only $236 for golf and dinner and $50 for just dinner. There will be more during the summer like the on-going favorite "Cigars & Cognac." Look for more Brotherhood events in the Shabbat leaflet and the eblast.

Remember, Brotherhood can only succeed and do all it does with your participation and support. If you haven't joined Brotherhood yet, please do so and/or consider making a contribution to help us run activities like Brotherhood Breakfasts, movies, lectures, Bourbon & Bible, and of course our support of youth activities and the Temple.

Sisterhood

Thank you to all Sisterhood supporters! Your generosity this year enabled us to host diverse events and make important donations!

We co-sponsored the screening of Prosecuting Evil: The Extraordinary World of Ben Ferencz, with Brotherhood, Israel Action Committee and Prime Time 4 Adults. This documentary highlights the life story of the last living Nuremberg prosecutor and New Rochelle resident, Ben Ferencz.

Sisterhood welcomed the former NY State Prosecutor and current MSNBC Legal Contributor Mimi Rocah for Pastries and Politics with Mimi Rocah. Temple Israel's own former prosecutor, Mitch Benson, facilitated the discussion.

Our 3rd annual Comedy Night was a success. Many thanks to the talented, funny, and willing congregant performers: Jennifer Herbst, Brian Heaps, Debbie Kahn and Jackie Saril. Plans are being made for another Comedy Night next year. All congregants are welcome to take the dedicated comedy class and perform on stage beside the Sisterhood brick wall at the Temple Israel Comedy Club! Please reach out to us if you're interested.

We partnered with Stephanie Krasner from the Edith H. Handelman Library committee to host a Temple-wide Common Read. Participants read Button Man, by Andrew Gross. We were thrilled to have the author join us for the breakfast event and are eager to plan another Temple-wide Common Read in the future.

Wednesday, May 15, 2019 was declared Temple Israel of New Rochelle Sisterhood Day in Westchester County. The outdoor message marquis in front of the Westchester County Center displayed our name. This was done to recognize the Community Service Award given to Temple Israel Sisterhood at a ceremony at United Hebrew of New Rochelle. The award was given to Sisterhood for our commitment to enhancing the lives of those in the community and our dedication to programs and services.

Together with Brotherhood, Sisterhood planned, participated and sponsored a Shabbat Service and Dinner on May 31st. Members of the 'Hoods participated by taking parts in the beautiful Shabbat service created by Bob Hirsh and Cantor Schloss. The complimentary dinner was a little way to thank our members for their continued support. The funds Sisterhood raises support the youth of Temple Israel. In addition to donating money to TIFTY to help with travel costs, supplying Chanukah gelt and candles to all Chavaya and Kehillah students, and purchasing Mishloach Manot for new temple members, Sisterhood presents a Kiddush cup to each B'nei Mitzvah student and donates to charities in Israel. Confirmants and High School graduates also receive gifts, and Sisterhood proudly supports Camp Pinebrook. Additionally, we contributed towards an upcoming Torah refurbishment project for aging Temple Israel Torahs.

We are grateful for the Sisterhood Executive Board members: Greta Berenbaum, Janet Frey, Liz Hartzman, Jennifer Herbst, Berdie Stein and Robin Werner. We could not sponsor so many great events without the help of these dedicated women.

Time has passed quickly – three years already! We are stepping down as Sisterhood Co-Presidents to allow new leaders to emerge. We are pleased to announce that Jennifer Herbst and Janet Frey will be the Co-Presidents of the Sisterhood Executive Board for 2019-2020.

If you weren't a Sisterhood member in 2018-2019, please think about joining us for 2019-2020! Contact Ellen Egan in the Temple Office to make arrangements.

Sisterhood looks forward to continuing to support Temple Israel, the youth of our community, and one another.

Enjoy the summer!

Social Action

Summer is here and we will be working on next year's Social Action calendar and events.

Interested in helping plan? We would love for you to join us. Contact us at SocialActionTINR@gmail.com or leave us a message at temple, (914) 235-1800. We are also planning a visit to the Sally and Anthony Mann Center at the Jewish Board's Hawthorne Campus. Let us know if you would like to come too. We are hoping to plan one summer visit and another one in the fall. Several of us have had the opportunity to visit the campus and learn more about their insightful and inspiring programming. Interfaith Council of New Americans – Westchester (ICNAW) has an immediate need for (a) volunteers (preferably with teaching experience in ESL/Adult Literacy or ESL/Elementary Education) to tutor members (father, mother and two boys aged 7 and 9) of the Afghan refugee family recently settled in New Rochelle, and (b) conversation partners who would visit with this family for an hour or so from time to time and give them an opportunity to hear and use their English. If you are interested, please contact Terri Kung at terrikung@yahoo.com for more information.

ICNA-W is also looking for volunteer drivers to take family members to appointments. Anyone interested should contact Seth Friedman at sethdf18@gmail.com to get access to the family's schedule and sign up for rides as their schedule permits.

Temple Israel's Oral History Project - Tell Your Story!

One of the oldest human (and Jewish) traditions is story-telling. Now at Temple Israel, we are starting a project to collect our stories. Temple Israel is a congregation of hundreds of families, each with its own stories. Some of those stories took place in our building, or in the Webster building, or perhaps in one of the even earlier buildings downtown. We are looking for people who want to share their stories of Temple Israel, and for volunteers to help us collect them. We will be recording interviews with willing subjects at the Temple or another convenient location. The recordings will be archived at the Temple, where they can be viewed. We plan to develop the means for the interviews to be viewed remotely, so that stories can be shared with people who are not nearby.

If you are interested in interviewing or being interviewed, please refer to the list on the right. You will note that not all interviewees and interviewers have been paired, so we need your help!

Please contact Warren Agatston (lawwsa@aol.com/(914) 933-0050) or Stan Konwiser (stankonwiser@gmail.com/(201) 703-1122) to volunteer.

A special thank you to Brotherhood and Sisterhood, Todd Pekats, Val Etra, Mitch Benson, and Warren and Janice Agatston for underwriting the cost of the recording equipment for this project!

Interviews are being conducted all summer long! Interviewers and interviewees should plan to meet in advance of the interview and review the suggested questions, agree on a few dates and then contact Mia Egelberg to schedule, so that a tech person will be available to assist. Please call her with any questions (914) 629-2794.

DIVE INTO A GOOD BOOK THIS SUMMER

Watch for these new books coming soon:

The New Girl, by Daniel Silva. Once again Silva brings us a thrilling, page-turning tale of entertainment and a sophisticated study of political alliances and great-power rivalries in a dangerous world.

The German Midwife: A Novel, by Mandy Robotham. An enthralling new tale of courage, betrayal and survival in the hardest of circumstances that readers of The Tattooist of Auschwitz will love.

When We Were Arabs: A Jewish Family's Forgotten History, by Massoud Hayom. A vivid account of the author's grandparents' lives in Egypt, Tunisia, Palestine, and Los Angeles which reclaims his family's Jewish Arab identity.

The Unwanted: America, Auschwitz, and a Village Caught in Between, by Michael Dobbs. What's most chilling about Dobbs's book is how his account of the early years of World War II echoes our politics today. Xenophobia, isolationism, a fear of destructive infiltrators and an aversion to more war all conspired to keep refugee quotas low, when they were filled at all.

Chutzpah: Why Israel is a Hub of Innovation and Entrepreneurship, by Inbal Arieli. Discover the secret behind how Israel, a tiny country with the highest concentration of start-ups per capita worldwide, is raising generations of entrepreneurs who are disrupting markets around the globe and bringing change to the world.

The Implacable Urge to Defame: Cartoon Jews in the American Press, 1877-1935, by Mathew Biagell. Biagell examines more than 60 published cartoons from magazines as such Judge, Puck, and Life and considers the climate of opinion that allowed such cartoons to be published. In doing so, he traces their impact on the emergence of anti-Semitism in 1920-1930's America.

The library will be open all summer and new books arrive weekly. Come visit to see all our wonderful new titles or log onto the library website: www.librarycat.org/lib/HandelmanLibrary/TINR to find and reserve your next great read.

If you would like to see our librarian, Stephanie Krasner, she is available in the library on most Fridays from 10:00 am to 12 noon. Questions? Email: stephkras11@gmail.com

Don't forget to search you home for any library books that you may have forgotten to return!

Love to read? Stephanie is looking for volunteers to join the Library Committee to help keep our library in tip-top shape. Lots of perks!
