

Schedule of the Day!

Sunday, April 30, 2023

The staff of the Conservancy is looking forward to hosting you and your synagogue on Sunday, April 30, 2023.

11:00AM

Meet your guide in front of the Bialystoker Synagogue, located at 7-11 Bialystoker Place/Willett St. (between Grand St. & Delancey Streets.) Tour Bialystoker, our jewel in the crown, resplendent in marvelous murals and Tiffany inspired stained glass windows, believed to be a site on the Underground Railroad. Hear a presentation of LES History as well as the congregation.

12:00PM

Stop at Moishe's Kosher Bakery on Grand Street to buy a sweet treat or two.

12:30PM

Walking tour of Historic East Broadway, discussing the mikvah, Henry Street Settlement, Lillian Wald, Educational Alliance, Seward Park, Straus Square, Shteiblach Row, Forward Building and more.

1:15PM

Stop at The Pickle Guys, Kossar's Bialys & The Doughnut Plant

1:45PM

See the sight of the former Beth Hamedrash Hagadol. This once gothic structure housed the first and largest Russian Jewish Orthodox Congregation in the United States, and the only chief Rabbi in America.

2:00PM

Hear the history of the Essex Market

2:10PM

Tour ends – Shop at Economy Candy.

Fee:

$26 per person by clicking on the RSVP link at www.tinr.org/events/les-tour.

The program will operate rain or shine; please dress accordingly!

General Information:

- A portion of your fee is donated to each synagogue visited. However, participants are invited to make individual donations at each synagogue during your visit.
- The synagogues are 19th and early 20th century buildings and there will be stairs to climb.
- Photography is permitted.
- Women may wear slacks, but are requested to dress respectfully; men are requested to wear skull caps or another head covering (each synagogue provides them).