Elul: Preparing for the Days of Awe

Friday, August 18th – Friday, September 15th

Jewish tradition instructs us to prepare ourselves spiritually for the High Holy Days and begin the work of repentance. In order to enable our entire community to take part in the spiritual work of Elul, we will be sending out the "e-lul" daily emails with a text, prayer, or poem to help us get in the right frame of mind for the holidays.

Important Information for the High Holy Days at Temple Israel

All services are open seating and unreserved. Services will begin promptly, as scheduled.

- We will be using Mishkan HaNefesh, the Reform Movement's machzor (High Holy Days prayer book) at all services. Prayer books and handouts will be placed on the seats ahead of time, and should be left on the seats at the end of the service.
- Nametags will be mailed to members and guests after registration for onsite services before Erev Rosh Hashanah. For everyone's safety, your name tag and a photo ID will need to be presented.

In the Sanctuary:

- Our services will take place indoors
- Masks are optional, and there will be designated areas
- Registration is required for in person services.

LiveStream

LiveStream services are available on the Temple Website at www.tinr.org. The "LiveStream Services" link is found in the upper right corner of the Temple Website.

LiveStream services do not require registration.

Guests

High Holy Days services are open to all. Security procedures demand that everyone has nametags, but they are available to anyone who wishes to attend. We ask that you use the enclosed card if you plan on bringing guests with you to services.

Deadline to register is Friday, September 1st, due to limited capacity!

Contributing This Season

Traditionally, the High Holy Days are a time to offer additional financial support to our synagogue. Your generosity during this time of spiritual seeking is essential for Temple Israel to maintain its service to the Community.

Please visit www.tinr.org to donate to Temple Israel of New Rochelle during these High Holy Days and throughout the year.

Scroll of Remembrance

In order to honor the memory of dear ones at this holy season, the names of the departed are printed and distributed during the Yizkor Memorial Service on the afternoon of Yom Kippur in our Scroll of Remembrance.

If you wish to memorialize loved ones in this manner, you can either use this card or visit www.tinr.org/HHD2023 and return it to the Temple by FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st.

Departed during the past year:

Departed in previous years:

Please print names, use back of this card for additional names

It is a Jewish custom and part of the foundation of Judaism to perform an act of tzedakah (charity) to honor the memory of a loved one, generally in the form of a donation to the Temple.

In memory of my beloved departed, I wish to donate $ _____ to Temple Israel of New Rochelle.
